Castro Talks Invasion, Cuba Is in a Frenzy

By RICHARD VALERIANI
HAVANA (AP)—Troops were on the move everywhere today in this Caribbean island—once a favorite winter playground—as Fidel Castro kept his nation in a frenzy to fight off the invasion he claims is coming from the United States. The United States termed Castro's latest invasion charge ridiculous, and a majority of the U.N. Security Council said after two days of debate the Cubans had not proved the charge. But the Cuban regime put on the most intensive military display it could muster. A wave of searches of Roman Catholic organizations and the arrest of at least nine Catholic students or teachers was reported, but it was not immediately clear whether a widespread movement against the church or its affiliates was under way. Anti-aircraft and anti-tank guns studied Malecon, Havana's picturesque seaford that in pre-Castro days was a favorite promenade for tourists at this time of year—mostly Americans. Artillery emplacements sprouted throughout the rest of Havana and its suburbs. The capital resounded to the movement of grim-faced civilian soldiers. Militia men and women patrolled rooftops with machine-guns at the ready. Hundreds of blue-uniformed teen-agers, members of the revolutionary youth organization, carried burp guns and bazookas into the elegant Hotel Nacional overlooking the Gulf of Mexico. The military activity cast a shadow across the "Day of Three Kings"—the traditional gift-giving day in Latin America which ends the Christmas holiday season. Castro has charged that the Eisenhower administration is preparing to invade by Jan. 18, two days before it leaves office. If U.S. troops do not invade, Castro presumably will crow that his militant preparedness scared them off, and he will claim a victory over the hated northern neighbor. Political and other prisoners were evacuated from Principe Prison atop a hill commanding a sweeping view of Havana. There were unconfirmed reports the ancient fortress was being converted to a temporary "invasion headquarters." Hundreds of militiamen and troops were deployed at Balabano, about 30 miles south of the capital on the coast, a jumping-off spot to the heavily guarded Isle of Pines, where thousands of political prisoners are held. Extraordinary movements of troops, militiamen and military equipment also went on around Santiago, capital of Cuba's far eastern Oriente Province.

WANT HOMELAND LIBERATED — Anti-Castro Cubans, carrying signs and American and Cuban flags, are shown outside President-elect John F. Kennedy's headquarters in New York. The Cubans demanded that something be done to liberate their homeland. Kennedy said on his arrival in New York that he would not comment on the diplomatic break between the U. S. and Cuba because "the responsibility rests on the present government until Jan. 20." — NEA Telephoto

Golden Age Club Off to Good Start

The Hope Golden Age Club, in their first meeting of 1961, got the new year off to a good start with their most successful meeting of recent months with 22 members present.

Routine business was transacted and plans for the year were made. Election of officers to serve in '61 will be held at the next bi-monthly meeting on Jan. 19.

Refreshments were served to members after awarding the door prize which was won by Mrs. K. Huffman.

President Eugene Cox and Mrs. Paul Cobb reported on the club's activities for 1960. It was formed in October of 1959.

Mrs. Valeria Menz, of Battle Creek, Mich., daughter of member D. R. Newman, was special guest of the club.

Asks Soldier to Repay Bonus

GREENVILLE, Miss. (AP)—The government is demanding that a former soldier repay part of his re-enlistment bonus because he didn't serve his six-year hitch.

A federal court suit says E.B. Dupuy of near Greenville in 1955 signed up for six years in the Army, picked up a bonus of $936, then wound up being discharged in 1958 "due to misconduct."

The government figures that left Dupuy owing the government 3 years, 10 months and 29 days, which boiled down to a $610.57 claim on the bonus.

However, Dupuy's last Army pay check, $75.09, was withheld and subtracted from the $610.57, leaving him $535.45 in the red, plus interests and court costs, the suit said.

Herter Gives Cuba Report to Senators

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter went before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today to talk about the crisis in Cuba, the civil war in Laos and America's position elsewhere.

Members, at a closed session, sought additional information on events leading up to President Eisenhower's severance of diplomatic relations with Fidel Castro's regime in Cuba and an up-to-date report on the situation in Laos as part of Herter's briefing on where the United States stands around the globe.

Green Resigns

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Glenn A. Green has resigned as executive vice president of the National Education Program to take a post with the national Right to Work Committee in Washington, D.C.

Dr. George S. Benson, NEP president, said no replacement has been selected for Green, whose resignation announced Thursday, is effective Jan. 31.

Green is a former state public director.

No Cooperation in Stork Derby

QUINCY, Fla. (AP)—All those Garden County lined up for its annual stork derby are still unclaimed. Not a single baby has been born in the county since Jan. 1.

Merchants each year contribute a large number of gifts for the first baby born in the new year.

Studies Income Tax Cut Plan to Curb Slump

By MARVIN ARROWSMITH
NEW YORK (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy has under study a call for temporary income tax cuts in the spring if the business slump takes a serious turn for the worse.

The call was sounded Thursday night by a committee appointed by Kennedy to evaluate the state of the nation's economy. It recommended that the new administration act swiftly to put into effect a sheaf of emergency measures designed to achieve recovery without resort to tax reductions in these times of international crisis.

The study group, in a report sprinkled with indirect criticism of the Eisenhower administration's handling of the business falloff, said these measures are urgently needed now.

And the committee, headed by economist Paul A. Samuelson of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, said there should be no blind adherence to a concept of a balanced budget in times of business recession.

Kennedy, who recently expressed concern about what he termed lack of vigor in the economy, had no immediate comment on the report.

It was made public after he had reviewed the document with Samuelson, Dr. Walter W. Heller, University of Minnesota economist chosen to be chairman of the incoming president's Council of Economic Advisers, and James Tobin, Yale University economist, whose appointment to the council was announced by Kennedy Thursday night.

As the other member of the three-man council, Kennedy named Kenneth Gordon, the Ford Foundation's director of economic development and administration.

The president-elect plans to fly late today to Washington for a series of business conferences. The first is scheduled tonight with Dean Rusk, who will be secretary of state in the new administration.

Kennedy intends to return to New York Sunday morning for more pre-inaugural meetings.

In advance of Thursday's conference on the economy, he met two hours with leaders of several farm organizations to discuss what he has called the farm crisis. He asked the group to come up with farm program recommendations at another session scheduled for Jan. 25 in Washington.

Today, other study committees he has appointed will get together with him to report on Latin American problems, education, housing and urban affairs and international exchange programs in cultural and other fields.

Kennedy also arranged a conference today with Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

15 Persons Killed in Downtown Hotel Fire in San Francisco

Cutback at Plant Only 25 Per Cent

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Reynolds Metals Co. aluminum reduction plant at Arkadelphia will not be closed today as originally scheduled, but will continue in operation at 25 per cent of capacity.

There was no explanation for the change in plans, announced Thursday afternoon by an aide to Reynolds President Richard Reynolds following a day of top level conferences. The new plan calls for the work force to be cut to 175. The operation had 600 employees when it was at full capacity.

Reynolds, Southwestern Power Administration officials, representative of Arkansas Power & Light Co. and Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. and others conferred with Gov. Orval E. Faubus during the morning.

Reynolds and AP&L officials met during the afternoon.

The change in signals was disclosed following the afternoon meeting.

The Company last November announced that the Arkadelphia plant — which had 300 employees at the time and was operating at half capacity — would be completely closed Jan. 6. A small casting facility was to be continued.

At the time, Reynolds officials said the Arkadelphia plant would be closed because it was the most expensive of the firm's plants.

The high cost of electric power and natural gas was cited as among the reasons the plant's operations were so expensive.

Reynolds said Thursday that electrical power and fuel costs were not responsible for the planned shutdown.

Instead, he said, the company can't sell the aluminum.

"The basic reason for the shutdown is that the market for aluminum is off nationally," Reynolds said. "We have no quarrel with gas, we have no quarrel with power. We have perfectly fine contracts with each."

Arkadelphia interests expressed pleasure at the decision to keep the plant in at least partial operation.

Employees expressed hope that production will be increased during the year and more workmen added.

Boss Named for Titan Base Work

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The U. S. Air Force has appointed Col. Julian M. Bleyer site activation task force commander for a Titan II missile complex under construction in an area north of the Little Rock Air Force Base.

Bleyer formerly commanded the 42nd Strategic Wing at Barksdale Air Force Base, La. He reports to Little Rock today.

Bleyer will oversee construction by Army Engineers of 18 launching sites which will make up the complex. When construction is completed he will supervise the installation of the missiles.

Strike Has Collapsed in Belgium

By FRED CHEVAL
BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The government said today the 18-day-old strike has collapsed in two of Belgium's nine provinces. But rioting broke out in Liege in the industrial south and there were noisy demonstrations in Brussels.

Socialist leaders of the strike against the Conservative government's economy program were reported looking for a way to halt the crippling workouts. A source close to the Socialist high command said "the end is near."

Pierre Harmel, government spokesman, said the strike is over in the provinces of Limburg in the north and Luxembourg in the south.

Trouble, however, broke out in the southern industrial city of Liege where 30,000 strikers cheered Andre Renard, a union leader considered the real power behind the walkouts.

Newspaper Circulation Up 52%

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Daily newspaper circulation in the United States has increased 52 per cent in the last 25 years while the nation's population has grown only 40 per cent.

The figures were given today by Stanford Smith, general manager of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Today's total daily circulation, he said, is 58 million. In 25 years it will be 81 million, he forecast.

Smith told a 25th anniversary meeting of Allied Daily Newspapers of Washington in a prepared speech that in 1935 the population of the United States was 127 million, the total circulation was 38 million and the total advertising volume was $762 million.

"The latest annual figures cover the year 1959 when total newspaper advertising volume was $3.54 billion. This is a gain of more than $2.75 billion," he said.

"Newspaper circulation grows because the service rendered to readers is not available from any other source and not likely ever to become available from any other source," Smith said.

"Newspaper advertising volume grows on the basis of a service to advertisers which produces results on a consistent, day-in, day-out basis."

Worst Fire in City in More Than Decade

By HARRY JUPITER
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—At least 15 persons were killed today as fire swept through the Thomas Hotel in downtown San Francisco.

It was the worst fire here in more than a decade and came on one of the coldest mornings in the city's history.

The four-story structure at 971 Mission St. had 160 cheap-priced rooms and all but 14 were occupied when the fire broke out about 5 a.m.

Fire Chief William Murray said it started in a mattress in a first-floor room and spread to the rear of the building and up the elevator shaft.

The dead included at least one woman.

"I'm afraid there'll be more," said Chief Murray. "We've just barely got the fire controlled and we're still finding bodies."

Some of the victims were trapped in their rooms by the flames; others were asphyxiated. Ironically, the chief said, the fire was seen earlier and thought to be extinguished.

"The guy in 42 smelled smoke in 41," Murray said. "He found a mattress smoldering and poured water on it. Then he went back to bed."

The man in room 41 was identified as Ray Gorman. The man in room 42 was Ed Saylor. Both were taken to emergency hospitals, critically burned.

Earl Blake, chief of the city's emergency hospitals, directed a steady flow of ambulances carrying dozens from the hotel.

"There were two or three dozen seriously hurt," he said.

The hotel housed many pensioners and others unable to work.

Many of the older residents were drunk, police said. They had just cashed pension checks and the halls of the burned out building smelled from ashes, smoke and alcohol.

Some people jumped to safety. Others, including at least two in wheel chairs, were carried out by firemen.

One man, Herbert Iselt, tried to descend from the top floor by using a rope made of knotted sheets. The knots parted and Iselt fell four stories to the pavement, breaking his back and legs.

Most of the survivors escaped wearing only underwear and they shuffled as they waited in their bare feet for ambulances.

The temperature was 36 degrees, extremely low for San Francisco, and only 7 degrees higher than the lowest ever recorded here, 29 in 1888.

Grave Robber Gets Jewelry

JACKSONVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Officers said about $300 worth of jewelry was taken from the body of a 29-year-old woman whose grave was broken into early Thursday.

A necklace, engagement and wedding rings and a wrist watch was taken from the body of Mrs. Alma Summers, Sheriff L. C. Young said.

Mrs. Summers died at her home here last Nov. 13 after a brief illness.

Young said the steel vault and casket containing the body had been broken open, apparently with an ax. Holes were tied to the wrists and a car or truck used to pull the body partially from the grave.

Officers were called after caretakers discovered the dirt on top of the grave had been disturbed. When officers dug into the grave, the body was found protruding from the broken vault.

Leaves Money for His Dogs

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Tavern operator John L. Lynch, 64, left income from his $25,000 estate to his two boxer dogs, Bing, 10, and Rusty, 5.

Mary Lou Grant, a neighbor, said Mrs. Lynch had left $3,000 for the dogs when she died last March. Lynch died Dec. 20.

The money will go to charities when the dogs die.

All the Animals Like Pet Doe

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) - The pretty pet doe at the T. R. Barner home here is a great favorite of the family—and of the dogs.

Mrs. Barner said Wednesday that the dogs team as bodyguards to route any strange dog who tries to get a deer hunt going when "Bambi" comes along.

The doe, found last summer, sleeps in an outbuilding with the dogs and cats curled around her. The gentle-eyed young maiden is fond of visiting the Barner kitchen, where she can put away sizable portions of toast, corn, milk, soda pop, cornflakes or even canned dog food.

The Barners expect she will be around until some buck happens by in the spring.

David O. Dodd Memorial Service

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Little Rock chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will hold a memorial service at the grave of David O. Dodd, "the boy martyr of the Confederacy," here Sunday—the opening of the nation-wide Civil War Centennial.

The 17-year-old Dodd was hanged as a spy by Union forces on Jan. 8, 1864. He is buried in Little Rock's Mount Holly Cemetery.

Dodd was arrested while Federal forces occupied Little Rock and much of the rest of Arkansas. In his possession was a memorandum book which contained entries written in telegraphic code. Some of these referred to the strength of Federal forces at Little Rock.

Historians say the boy was offered his freedom if he would reveal who gave him the information about the Union defenses but that he chose to die rather than betray his friends.

Fayetteville Station Sold

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Sale of radio station KHOG and Trans-Video Corp. of Arkansas, both of Fayetteville, to Southwest Video, Inc., of Dallas, Texas was announced today.

No sale price was disclosed. Fred Stevenson, manager of both businesses, will continue in that capacity for the new owners.

The announcement said details of the sale were completed Tuesday in Dallas.

Both KHOG and Trans-Video of Arkansas were owned by Fayetteville area residents. Hayden McIlroy, a banker, was president of KHOG and Hal Douglas, Northwest Arkansas Times publisher, was president of Trans-Video.

KHOG began operation in 1955 as KGRH. Its call letters were changed in 1957. Trans-Video, which pipes programs from commercial television stations to private homes for a monthly fee, was begun in 1953.

They pulled up in front of a sod house set down in the mesquite.

A potbellied man came out in front while Arrington was reading the brands on horses tied along the rail.

"I see Jones is here," said Arrington.

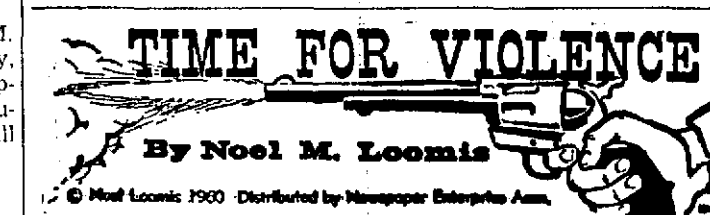

A man ducked under the low door frame and came out into the sunlight. He was tall and big; wore a big hat; had cold blue eyes, a big brown mustache and

IT'S A SCHOOL—A striking structure indeed is the new Domestic and Trades College in Manchester, England. City architect Leonard C. Howitt designed the complex which was built for $1,680,000. Trades as varied as baking and wig-making are taught at the school which also has a restaurant where student chefs can try their work out on the public.

ABOMINABLE SNOWMAN? HILLARY DOUBTS IT—Sir Edmund Hillary carries a valise containing a 240-year-old scalp alleged to be from an abominable snowman. Nepalese Khumjo Chumbi, left, accompanied Hillary to Chicago where the scalp will be examined. It has been kept within the confines of the Sherpa village of Khum Jung since it was found. Hillary, first man to conquer Mount Everest, considers the abominable snowman a myth.

CHAPTER XII

They had breakfast with Harding and the hands, and Arrington said, "Tell Stella I'm sorry not to have seen her."

"I'll do that," said Tom Harding.

"I expect to be back Monday morning," Bart told Harding. Arrington glanced sharply at them, but said nothing. Arrington was a smart lawman.

They set out. Arrington seemed to know the way, and both horses appeared strong.

Bart asked him, "What do you know about old Ben Lewis?"

Arrington said, "A nasty old man—the kind that would cringe before Xenophon Jones and then take it out on somebody like Catherine."

"I figured that," said Bart. "Was he an outlaw?"

"Sort of semi. He must have known Jones somewhere—maybe back in Missouri—and he had been a sort of messenger boy for Jones. Then he straightened up, decided to break away and go out for himself. He went to Texas to visit a cousin, and met Catherine. He was about 60 then. They got married and came up here. Whether it was planned that way with Jones, I don't know. Anyway, soon after Lewis bought his grass, Jones moved in, and they started working together."

"His ranch is well located," said Bart, "adjoining the JA and the LJ and not far from the Half Moon."

"I think they used the Quarter Circle J B land as a holding grounds," Arrington struck a match. "I don't know whether Catherine ever knew that or not."

"With all these thieves and killers running loose, it still looks like some kind of ironic justice to take me in to Mobeetie."

brown whiskers. "I heard you was lookin' for me, Captain."

Arrington stepped into the open. "Howdy, Jones. I thought you'd like to know I got the man you signed a complaint against. You better be on hand in the morning."

"I can't be in Mobeetie until next Tuesday morning," Arrington said, "That's too long, Jones. I can't hold a man three or four days on a complaint."

"He killed Tex-Mex," Arrington said sharply, "But I don't know what Tex-Mex was doing on the LJ that night."

Jones frowned. "You mean you're going to turn him loose?" "I think the J.P. will. Even with whatever you can say against him, this is mighty flimsy evidence."

Jones hesitated. A little of his assurance left him. "Furthermore," said Arrington, "one of your men picked up the wrong horse. That hay down there is a JA brand."

"That was mighty careless of him," said Jones. "Call him out."

The whiskered face of Hicks Gentry appeared. His neck was covered with purple and blue bruises.

"Where'd you get that JA horse?" asked Arrington. "I bought it in Tascosa," said Gentry.

"Let me see your bill of sale," Gentry fumbled in his pants pockets.

"I lost it," Arrington said, "You know better than to ride a JA horse without a bill of sale."

"I forgot," said Gentry. "You ride into Mobeetie with me and see if you can remember."

Rivals Group for Battle in House

WASHINGTON (AP)—An uneasy calm lay over the recessed House today as rival Democratic groups probed for vulnerable spots in a fight to shake up the Rules Committee.

There seemed to be no big hurry to reach the showdown stage.

One group, headed by Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, is determined to break the legislative stranglehold a conservative coalition now has in the Rules Committee.

It is ready to resort to drastic purge procedure if necessary to make safer the course of president-elect John F. Kennedy's program. On the surface at least, Rayburn has the votes to back up his position but reportedly prefers to avoid resorting to a purge.

The other group, headed by Rules Committee Chairman Howard W. Smith, D-Va., has rejected compromises that would avoid a purge but strip the coalition of its committee control.

Objects of purge, if it comes to that, would be four Mississippi Democrats who did not support the Kennedy-Johnson ticket. They are William M. Colmer, senior members of the Rules Committee Jamie L. Whitten, chairman of an Appropriations Subcommittee; Arthur Winstead, a high-ranking member of the Armed Services Committee, and John Bell Williams, senior member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

All four would lose their seniority rights if they were victims of a purge. It is seniority which has given Southern Democrats dominant voices on House committees.

Colmer and Smith often have joined with the four rules committee Republicans to block liberal legislation in the 12-man committee.

The compromise mentioned most frequently, and reportedly acceptable to Rayburn, would increase the Rules Committee membership to 15, with 10 Democrats and 5 Republicans. It would surround Colmer rather than purge him.

Some liberals have suspicions, though, that such a realignment of the committee might backfire. They note that one of the Democratic members, James W. Trimble of Arkansas, comes from a state which will lose two House seats under the new census reapportionment.

They wonder if Trimble could politically afford to side with committee liberals under a threat that the Arkansas Legislature might redistrict him out of office.

Should Trimble side with the coalition, the liberals would be on the short end of an 8-7 coalition even if the committee were expanded to 15 members.

Sales Tax Is Voted by La. House

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—A Louisiana senate committee opened hearings today on Gov. J. B. McNeese II. Davis' proposed $28 million sales tax raise which cleared the House 69-31 Wednesday.

The administration of the hymn-singing governor turned on fire-house pressure to win the House vote, stirring public accusations of political fireing to whip support into line.

Davis, after sending the legislators home for a 12-day holiday recess which ended Wednesday, told them the tax was the people's fight, too, and then warned "America is watching Louisiana."

Without the tax, the governor proclaimed, Louisiana would continue its fight against school integration in New Orleans with one hand tied behind its back.

Foes cried he was deceiving the public by asking a tax raise for segregation when, they claimed, that wasn't true, that he wanted the money for other purposes despite protests about wasteful government.

Colmer and Smith often have joined with the four rules committee Republicans to block liberal legislation in the 12-man committee.

The compromise mentioned most frequently, and reportedly acceptable to Rayburn, would increase the Rules Committee membership to 15, with 10 Democrats and 5 Republicans. It would surround Colmer rather than purge him.

Some liberals have suspicions, though, that such a realignment of the committee might backfire. They note that one of the Democratic members, James W. Trimble of Arkansas, comes from a state which will lose two House seats under the new census reapportionment.

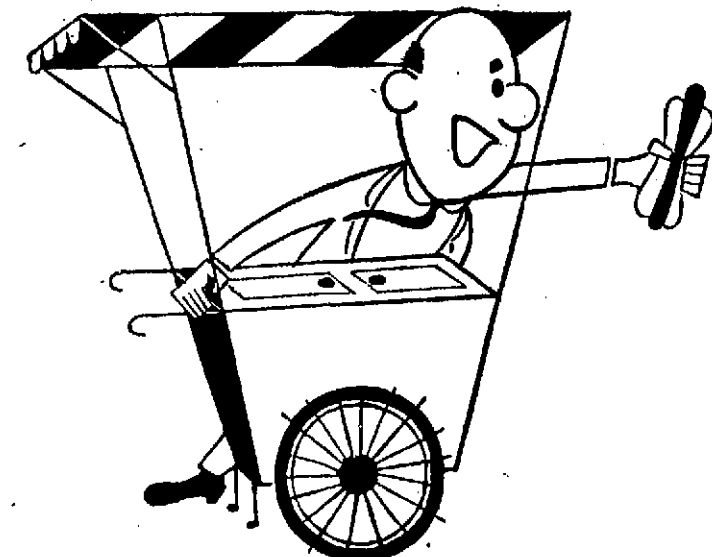

They wonder if Trimble could politically afford to side with committee liberals under a threat that the Arkansas Legislature might redistrict him out of office.

Should Trimble side with the coalition, the liberals would be on the short end of an 8-7 coalition even if the committee were expanded to 15 members.

4 Cage Teams in Action on Weekend

By Vince Foster
Hope Star Sportswriter

In Jones Field House this weekend there will be four games featuring our Hope teams. The Bobcats and Bobkittens meet Nashville tonight and Malvern tomorrow night.

The first game will be at 7 tonight between the Bobkittens and the Nashville Juniors. About 8:30 the Bobcats take on the Nashville Seniors. The Kittens took Nashville in the last game they played them and presently the Kittens have a 3-1 record. The big gun for the Kittens has been six foot Dan Jones, who has averaged 17 points per game. Other regulars include Mack McLarty, Buddy Sprague, Richard McDowell and Mutt Wassell.

Dec. 10 the Bobcats blasted the Scrappers 62-43 with Gene Robinson taking 15 points. The Cats, coached by Billy Mitchell, have a 6-3 record and are rated 16th in the state. Their only losses have come to Big 9 teams Hall High and Texarkana and to a powerhouse Stephens.

The probable starting lineup for the Cats will be Glen Calhoun with 84 points this year. Gene Robinson with 84, Curtis Churchwell with 57, Larry Arnett with 48 and Eddie Fry with 38 points.

Saturday night both Hope teams open their conference play with Malvern. The district-defending Bobkittens, coached by Wesley Huddleston open at 7 p.m. The Cats play at 8:30. It appears the Cats have a good chance of winning the district this year, as only two of the five district 4A teams entered in the past Holiday Tournament advanced to the semi-finals, they were Hope and Fairview. Hope beat Fairview in the semi-finals 59-45. Magnolia had previously beaten Camden but were taken by Texarkana later, and Smackover was taken by Amity.

All Hope fans are urged to attend these games both Friday and Saturday night and remind to Boost the Bobcats and Bobkittens.

Rules Purge Compromise Gains Some

WASHINGTON (AP) — A compromise plan to expedite president-elect John F. Kennedy's major legislative program without a Rules Committee purge gained strong backing today in the House.

The compromise, reportedly acceptable to some conservative as well as liberal Democrats, could break a deadlock over how to prevent the conservative rules group from bottling up legislation.

The plan boiled down to an agreement that Southerners would not use their rules committee power to slow down the Kennedy program insofar as it does not involve civil rights legislation.

The proposal also would take from the Rules Committee its present power to stifle bills passed by both branches but not adjusted by conference committees. Such bills would be allowed to go to conference without prior approval by the rules group.

The reaction of Speaker Sam Rayburn to the compromise was not known immediately, but sources close to him predicted that he would approve it rather than force a bitter intra-party fight.

Rayburn has promised a group of liberal Democrats to break the grip a coalition has in the Rules Committee, even if it required removing Rep. William M. Colmer, D-Miss., from the committee. Colmer and chairman Howard W. Smith, D-Va. have sided with the four, conservative committee Republicans to effectively dominate the 12-member committee.

Grounds for removal of Colmer, despite his seniority, would be that he did not support the Kennedy-Johnson ticket. Four other Mississippi Democrats in the same position probably would be removed from their choice committee posts if the purge took place.

The five major legislative proposals which the Southerners said they would not try to stop in the Rules Committee deal with housing, minimum wages, depressed areas, aid for education, and health assistance for elderly persons. They are a basic part of the Kennedy program.

Other speakers during the two day convention will include Frank Abigren, editor of the Memphis Commercial Appeal; Jess Covington, chairman of the University of Arkansas Journalism Department; J. Q. Mahaffey, editor of the Texarkana Gazette, and Harvey Walters, Georgia Press Association, secretary-manager.

Deamore was selected in 1959 for a year's study at Harvard under a Nieman Foundation fellowship. He returned to Mountain Home last May after studying government and history.

and Tommy of Little Rock have been the guests of Mrs. W. F. Spears and other relatives.

Bradley Ready to Parlay for National Title

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Now that Mack (The Knife) Herndon has slashed his way back toward expected shape, Bradley's Braves look ready to parlay a backyard title with those national tournament crowns they've been resorting to as consolation the last couple years.

The second-ranked Braves, rumbling in the second half behind Mack The Knife, stretched their nation's longest major winning streak to 17 and their season log to 11-0 Thursday night with a comeback 61-61 decision over Wichita.

It was the third straight Missouri Valley Conference triumph for the youngsters of Ozzie Orsborn, who still is looking for his first MVC title despite a brilliant over-all record of 105-20 in four-plus years as head coach.

Thursday night Herndon, making only his second start of the season, led the scoring with 21 points — including a basket that broke a 56-all tie and shoved the Braves ahead to stay.

St. Louis (9-2) won its second MVC game, 54-47 over Tulsa, Drake (9-1) squared its MVC record at 1-1 with a 108-73 romp over North Texas State, and St. Bonaventure's Tom Slith and Gonzaga's Frank Burgess resumed their sizzling national scoring battle in other major games.

Slith had 35 points, upping his season average to 31.36, as third-ranked St. Bonaventure, (10-1) shook off Belmont Abbey 75-63 for its 96th straight home court victory.

Burgess maintained his slight lead over Slith, collecting 32 points despite Gonzaga's 81-60 setback at the hands of Washington State. His average is 31.38.

Sophomore Rod Thorn scored 24 points and Lee Patrone 16 as West Virginia (7-2) beat VMI 67-72 for a 3-1 Southern Conference record, and Clemson overcame an 11-point deficit and whipped Furman 57-53.

Penn State scored a 76-68 decision over Colgate, and Fordham, back to its home court after four straight West Coast loss, bounced Syracuse 54-48.

George Blaney's 19 points led Holy Cross (6-2) over Massachusetts 65-58 and Denver won a Skyline Conference test from Wyoming 81-66. Fred Moses had 21 points in Oklahoma City's 80-50 romp over Loyola of New Orleans.

Negro Picketing Brings a Fight

ANNISTON, Ala. (AP)—Fighting between white persons and Negroes broke out in front of the Anniston police station today in the wake of picketing by Negro students.

Police drew their pistols and moved into the brawl, arresting two Negroes and one white man. Police said that three or four white persons and one or two Negroes actually fought while a crowd numbering more than 100 white persons and almost 100 Negroes looked on.

The scuffle was brief, police said. The Negroes started picketing an hour after a criminal court hearing opened for a white man charged with assault with intent to murder in the reported beating of two Negroes here over the weekend.

Soil Testing to Be Continued

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An intensified soil testing program carried out in five Arkansas counties last year will be extended to 10 more counties during 1961.

Agricultural Extension Service soil specialist Woody Miley told the 10th Annual Arkansas Plant Food Conference here Thursday that the expansion was a result of a successful testing in Lawrence, St. Francis, Desha, Little River and Boone counties during 1960.

Counties taking part in the program during the present year will be Carroll, Clay, Searcy, Crawford, Faulkner, Woodruff, Jefferson, Arkansas, Miller and Columbia.

Miley said the intensified program was undertaken when a lag was noted in the regular testing program begun in 1946.

Colleges Split 547 Donations

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Foundation of Associated Colleges received a record 547 gifts totaling $177,443 during 1960.

Brig. Gen. Hugh Corl, foundation executive director, said Tuesday that the gifts came from 110 firms and individuals.

Colleges and amounts received from the Foundation during the year were: Arkansas College, $20,384; College of the Ozarks, $22,277; Harding, $35,714; Hendrix, $23,763; John Brown University, $21,394; Ouachita, $36,330; and Southern Baptist, $19,831.

NCAA Meets, Oklahoma Is a Question

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The annual get-together of college coaches and athletic directors starts today with one big unanswered question and a couple of lesser ones that aren't on the official agenda.

The big one: What are they going to do about Oklahoma?

Some other questions: Who gets what football coaching job? What happens to the bowl games that weren't played?

The Oklahoma question is a holdover from last year's meeting. The Sooners were placed on indefinite probation a year ago because an investigation failed to turn up the financial details of a recruiting fund that operated from 1952 to 1954.

The university couldn't supply the answer; the man who admitted the fund wouldn't open his books and the NCAA ruled Oklahoma would have to take the consequences until the NCAA council could see the figures and decide just how badly the rules had been fractured.

A year later the situation apparently is unchanged but there's a feeling in some quarters that Oklahoma's punishment has lasted long enough.

The annual football coaching go-round appears to be of minor importance this year. Only a few major jobs are vacant and anything that happens here likely will be in the nature of preliminary conversation.

The bowl question is a new one. A proposed change in the NCAA by-laws specifies that if a postseason game is certified but not played, its certification shall lapse. This mainly affects New York's Golpham bowl game — approved for December 1960 but unplayed because top teams couldn't be obtained. The promoters may not even want to try again.

Otherwise the week-long series of meetings may not be eventful. The 562 colleges, conferences and allied groups composing the NCAA will act on several bills of legislation designed to strengthen NCAA control over practices in recruiting and financial aid to athletes.

Inflation Didn't Hurt, U. S. Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—The average American family wasn't seriously hurt by the big postwar inflation, a government report indicated today.

The Census Bureau said family incomes increased more than twice as fast as living costs between 1947 and 1959. It said that after taking inflation into account, median incomes rose from $4,000 to $5,400 during the twelve years. Without adjustment for inflation, incomes were up from $3,000 to $5,400.

Median income divides all families into two equal groups, with half earning more and half earning less.

The report also showed a steady movement of many families into higher income brackets. For example, less than 25 per cent of all families reported incomes below $3,000 in 1959, compared with about 50 per cent in 1947.

Of the nation's 45 million families, about one in eight had an income of $10,000 or more in 1959.
